

Kortelēs kirtimo līnija.
Jos galutinīame makete neturi būtī.

The diagram shows a rectangular layout for a business card. It features a solid blue outer border with four registration marks (crosshairs) at the corners. Inside this is a dashed pink line representing the cutting line. Within the pink line is a dashed blue line representing the safety margin. The text is placed within the safety margin. Arrows point from the text labels to their respective lines: one points to the pink cutting line, one points to the blue safety margin line, and one points to the blue dashed line.
